A MESSAGE FROM LEADERSHIP

One hundred and fifteen years is a very long time! Kol hakavod to the entire JCYS Community for reaching this significant milestone. The reason that this agency has been a prominent institution in Chicago for over a century is that we have continued to evolve to meet the needs of those we serve by being adaptable, innovative, and well sustained by our supporters and families.

We are blessed with an incredible team who makes JCYS meaningful every day for our children and families and, frankly, for each other. Our board and board alumni remain engaged and supportive of our mission and will, literally, roll up their sleeves to help accomplish whatever is needed. Our prior leaders, Past Presidents and Directors for Life, deserve unending appreciation for staying in our Leadership Circle.

On April 30th, the entire community joined together to celebrate JCYS and honor Nancy and Dan Pollack for their lifetime of service to the agency. For the last 53 years, every JCYS program, initiative, and structure has borne the incredible time and talent of Nancy and Dan. The magical evening was truly a testament to their tremendous efforts, as evidenced by the many people who turned out to honor them and support JCYS. Comedian Joel Chasnoff made the evening as emcee extraordinaire, expert auctioneer, and very funny man. The event was truly worthy of the honor of 115 years and the Pollacks.

JCYS serves children of all faiths, many of whom require financial assistance to be able to attend. In honor of Nancy and Dan, every scholarship that JCYS awards will be named a Pollack Family Scholarship, thus acknowledging well into the future the significance of the work that they have done for JCYS over the last 53 years.

JCYS continues to work through the issues of COVID, staffing and supply shortages, and seemingly runaway inflation. Still, we are solid in our commitment to our community and our families. We are poised to embrace the future and our financial position is stronger than at any other time in our long history.

With profound gratitude to everyone who supported JCYS over its extraordinary history.

JCYS CELEBRATES 115 YEARS

JCYS has responded to the varying needs and shifting demographics in the Chicagoland area throughout its long history. Though our programs continue to change and evolve to meet the demands of the community, our commitment and dedication to service—and to those we serve—remains constant and is what has sustained this agency for 115 years.

1907 JCYS—first known as "Young Men's Associated Jewish Charities" and later as "Young Men's Jewish Council"—was founded. The agency's initial purpose was to engage a group of young male leaders in securing financial support for various Jewish charities and philanthropies in Chicago.

1914 While the leadership experience continued to be a key part of the agency's mission, JCYS sought a new direction – to directly serve the youth of Jewish immigrants who desperately needed social and recreational services. The organization chose to pursue this goal through outdoor recreation and camping.

1940s Upon the passing of Illinois Governor Henry Horner, who was JCYS president in 1915 and integral to the summer camp's beginnings, the agency's summer camp near Wooster Lake was renamed "Camp Henry Horner" in his honor.

1970s Women started to play a larger role in the workforce and JCYS responded by adding preschool programs and parent-child activities. The agency experienced significant growth with the addition of the George W. Lutz Family Center in Highland Park and the Michael R. Lutz Family Center in Lakeview.

1989 The agency changed its name from "Young Men's Jewish Council" to "Jewish Council for Youth Services" to honor the growing role of women in the organization and to better reflect the age group most served through its programs.

1990s The agency acquired the former Elms Swim & Tennis Club in Highland Park, renovated it, and renamed it the Lillian L. Lutz Recreation Center.

2000s

Extending the reach of agency services, the Northwest Family Center opened as an early childhood education center in Buffalo Grove, offering infant care for the first time in JCYS history.

2016

The new Michael R. Lutz Family Center opened in Chicago's growing Wicker Park neighborhood, becoming the only Jewish institution in the area.

Strengthening its tradition of volunteer service and leadership development, the agency launched the JCYS Leadership Circle, a formal leadership training program for the Board of Directors.

2019

The JCYS Board of Directors approved the sale of Camp Henry Horner to Camp Nageela, a Jewish camping organization. The sale included the camp site and the Camp Red Leaf program.

The Iris & Steven Podolsky Family Center, located in the heart of the Lincoln Square and Ravenswood neighborhoods of Chicago, opened. The center houses the agency's beloved staff and programming from the Michael R. Lutz Family Center in Lakeview, which closed earlier that year.

2020

A worldwide pandemic, COVID-19, caused all four centers to close in March. JCYS Family Centers reopened four months later in July with a myriad of regulations and restrictions in place. The guidelines changed constantly and JCYS adapted as needed.

2021

The COVID-19 pandemic shaped every aspect of JCYS operations and staff rose to meet the challenges. JCYS was strengthened by many forms of fundraising provided by the supporters of JCYS as well as the federal and state government programs.

2022

JCYS held its first in-person gathering for supporters after two years of not seeing one another, JCYS: Celebrating 115 Years, honoring Nancy and Dan Pollack for a lifetime of service to the agency.

COVID-19, unfortunately, continues to shape JCYS operations and staff continuously rises to meet those challenges.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

JCYS Family Centers provide a nurturing educational environment for children and a supportive community for families to learn and grow together.

Our early childhood programs foster curiosity and a love of learning in children 6 weeks through 5 years. Through our play-based curriculum, JCYS Early Childhood Education develops:

- Social and emotional intelligence
- Behavioral skills
- Physical health
- Academic readiness and cognitive development

We are proud to provide educational services to families at four Family Centers throughout the Chicagoland area.

JCYS: CELEBRATING 115 YEARS

GALA

On April 30, 2022, we were thrilled to welcome our supporters to The Drake Hotel for the 115th Anniversary celebration of JCYS, honoring Nancy and Dan Pollack for a lifetime of service to the agency.

JCYS: Celebrating 115 years was the first in-person gathering of our supporters in over two years and carried tremendous significance for the agency and those we serve. The event proved to be one of great philanthropic success and the sense of community, inspiration, generosity, and wonder throughout the evening was atmospheric. Nancy, a Director for Life, and Dan, a Past President, were appropriately honored by past presidents, directors for life, board members and designates, board alumni, and friends.
