On Monday, September 8, Jewish Council for Youth Services (JCYS) supporters will try to “Beat the Pro”, get a Hole-in-One or hit a grand slam at the Annual JCYS Golf and Tennis Outing – Love Fore! JCYS. Held at Green Acres Country Club in Northbrook, Illinois, the fundraiser includes a golf scramble and mixed doubles tennis tournament, as well as a cocktail reception and awards ceremony.

Formerly known as Young Men’s Jewish Council, JCYS is an independent, not-for-profit agency dedicated to serving the greater Chicagoland region with an emphasis on developing leaders who continue its tradition of volunteer service. The agency is a leader in providing innovative programs and services, which address the developmental, recreational and educational needs of children and their families, regardless of religion or race. Funds raised at the event help the agency provide over $100,000 in scholarships annually to JCYS families in need of financial assistance.
