

FAQs Regarding the Sale of JCYS Camp Henry Horner

What is JCYS selling and who is the buyer?

JCYS has entered into a contract to sell Camp Henry Horner (CHH) to Camp Nageela Midwest. The sale includes both the Camp Henry Horner property and the Camp Red Leaf program.

Who is Camp Nageela?

Formerly located in Marshall, Indiana, Camp Nageela operates a 3-week overnight camp in the summer for girls and a separate 3-week overnight camp for boys. They serve 2nd graders through high school students and are accredited by the American Camp Association. Camp Nageela seeks "...to provide meaningful Judaic education/inspiration, and to act as platforms for individualistic growth and development."

By when is the sale anticipated to be effective?

We anticipate the sale to be effective by March 1, 2019. JCYS will continue operations and scheduled programming through the end of February 2019. As of Friday, March 1st, Camp Nageela will be the new owner and operator.

What is the impact to Camp Henry Horner Day Camp?

CHH Day Camp will no longer operate at Camp Henry Horner. However, Graham Little will be running JCYS North Suburban Day Camp out of the JCYS Northwest Family Center in Buffalo Grove. Therefore, Camp Henry Horner day campers have the option of transferring to this new camp.

How can I get more information and/or register for JCYS North Suburban Day Camp?

Please call (847) 740-5010 to request more information on JCYS North Suburban Day Camp, which will be based at the Northwest Family Center.

What transportation options do I have to get to JCYS North Suburban Day Camp at the Northwest Family Center?

Transportation will be available for an additional fee to and from Vernon Hills, Mundelein, and Highland Park. Please note that Highland Park transportation will require a minimum of 10 participants for the bus to run.

What is the impact to Camp Henry Horner Overnight Camp?

CHH Overnight Camp is ending. However, Camp Nageela offers a very successful overnight camp that we encourage you to check out. Please contact Camp Nageela at (773) 604-4400 or at info@nageela.org for more information.

What is the impact to Camp Red Leaf?

Camp Red Leaf respites and summer camps will continue to be held on site at Camp Henry Horner and will be operated by Camp Nageela. Lauren Malecki will remain the Director of Camp Red Leaf. If you have any questions or wish to enroll in future sessions of Camp Red Leaf, please contact Lauren Malecki at (847) 740-5010 ext. 2224 or Camp Nageela at (773) 604-4400 or info@nageela.org. If you have already enrolled in a Camp Red Leaf program, Camp Nageela will be in touch with you directly with more information.

What about deposits I paid for Camp Henry Horner Day or Overnight Camp after March 1st?

All deposits for Camp Henry Horner Day and Overnight Camp will be refunded by JCYS over the next 2-3 weeks. Deposits will be returned via a credit card refund or check in the mail. A deposit refund request is not required to receive a refund. If JCYS needs more information to process your deposit refund, you will be contacted. Should a family choose to attend the new JCYS North Suburban Day Camp, deposits can be transferred and applied accordingly. Please call JCYS at (847) 740-5010 to confirm your desire to transfer your deposit to JCYS's new day camp or if you have any further questions.

What about deposits I paid for Camp Red Leaf summer camps or respites after March 1st?

Camp Nageela will continue to operate Camp Red Leaf. However, should you choose to unenroll in Camp Red Leaf programs for which you have already paid a deposit, please let JCYS know by Thursday, February 28th and your deposit will be refunded. Deposits will be returned via a credit card refund or check in the mail. If JCYS needs more information to process your deposit refund, you will be contacted. If program cancellation is not received by Thursday, February 28th, your deposit will transfer to Camp Nageela on March 1st. Please call JCYS at (847) 740-5010 if you have any further questions.
